DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the "means to selectively control the power and polarity of the electrical power to each of said electric motor" of claim must be shown or the feature canceled from the claim. No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

2. Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The invention herein," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

3. Claim 1 is objected to because of the following informalities: With regard to element d., the comma after the word "first" is inappropriate.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Seguchi et al. (US. 6,401,849 B1) in view of Robinson et al. (US. 6,491,126 B1).

Seguchi discloses a motorized personnel carrier comprising:

- a. left front wheel and right front wheel (701, 702), each of which is operatively coupled to a first drive mechanism which common to said left and right front wheels,
- b. left rear wheel and right rear wheel (703, 704) operatively coupled to a second drive mechanism which is common to said left and right rear wheels and is not operatively engageable with said second drive mechanism,
- c. first reversably rotatable electric motor (1210) which is selectively engagable with said first drive mechanism,
- d. second reversably rotatable electric motor (1310) which is selectively engagable with said second drive mechanism,
- e. electric battery means (600), and
- g. means (500) to selectively control the power and polarity of the electrical power to each of said electric motors.

Seguchi lacks the teaching of first and second universal joints.

Robinson teaches the use of universal joints, specifically, constant velocity joint for a land vehicle (col 10 lines 30-38) so as to provide smoother torque transmission to the front wheels.

Based on the teaching of Robinson, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the vehicle of Seguchi to include the constant velocity joint of Robinson so as to provide smoother torque transmission to the front wheels.

With regard to claims 2-8, Seguchi as modified by Robinson meets all of the claimed limitations.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Pasquini et al. ('946), Adds ('504), and Reed ('908) are cited of interest.
